“With a scholarship gift, you get to see results right away.”

Ophthalmologist and Michigan medical alumnus Tom Varbedian (Class of 1956), whose scholarship gift this year is assisting second-year student Stephen Warnick, who comes from the city of Eastpointe north of Detroit.

Annual named scholarships, which may be established with gifts of $5,000 or more, provide financial support to a medical student in need and create an opportunity to be involved in the life of the University of Michigan Medical School and the future of medicine in an immediate and meaningful way.

To learn more about how to establish your own named annual scholarship in the U-M Medical School, or to provide help to a resident in a particular department, please contact Sandi Campione at (734) 998-0358 or klines@umich.edu.

You may also request a copy of “Lifting the Burden...Realizing the Dream,” a 12-minute video on the need for scholarship support, in VHS or DVD format, by contacting Ms. Campione.
